Character, Comfort & Entertaining Spaces

4-Bedroom, 2-Bath Home with 3-Car Garage Near the Manchester University Campus!

Offering a blend of character, comfortable living spaces, and distinctive features, this 4-bedroom, 2-bath home presents an appealing opportunity in North Manchester! Situated near a college campus, this property offers a convenient in-town location with plenty of room to enjoy both everyday living and entertaining.

One of the home's standout features is its fun and character-filled living room, highlighted by a wood-accented ceiling and awning, exposed beams, stone wood-burning fireplace, and an adjoining bar area near the foyer. This space creates a memorable setting for gathering with family and friends, relaxing, or hosting get-togethers. The kitchen offers plenty of cabinetry, ample lighting, and a center island that provides additional workspace and a natural gathering spot.

The home features four bedrooms, with the fourth offering flexibility to serve as a home office, hobby room, additional living space, or whatever best suits your needs. A main-level bedroom suite adds convenience and features doors leading directly to the outdoor patio, creating an easy connection between indoor and outdoor living.

Outdoor spaces provide even more room to unwind, including a covered front porch with ceiling fans and an open patio for enjoying the seasons.

A 3-car garage adds valuable space for vehicles, storage, hobbies, or projects. Additional features include built-in shelving and a workbench, garage utilities with a utility sink, and an extra room just off the garage that offers even more storage possibilities. A large concrete driveway provides generous parking and convenient access.

With its distinctive entertaining area, flexible bedroom arrangement, main-level suite, and spacious garage, this North Manchester property offers a combination of features worth taking a closer look at!
