Here's a summary of the perks currently active on your organizer account, plus what's new.

Paid Social Campaigns

A blue checkmark appears on your organizer profile and event listings, signaling trust to attendees.

Your existing Top Organizer badge continues to work as before — the two badges run side by side.

Applied automatically to any Eventbrite Ads campaign you run — no redemption steps needed.

Premium Support

Live chat, priority email response, and phone escalation whenever you need hands-on help.

50% Off Instant Payouts

NORTH AMERICA ONLY

The per-payout fee is cut in half — from 3% down to 1.5% — on every instant payout.

10,000
EMAILS / DAY

Priority placement in the Eventbrite consumer newsletter, with up to 10,000 marketing emails sent per day on your behalf. If you already have priority placement through the Sponsored Marketing Package, these new placements come on top of what you have today.
