All items are sold AS IS-WHERE IS and WITH ALL FAULTS with no warranties, representation or guarantees expressed, implied or otherwise given. All sales are final. Auction Company shall not be responsible for any errors or omissions in the description of any auction item unless it is a material and intentional misrepresentation of the item itself. No deduction will be allowed on damaged items.

Bidders are encouraged to preview and inspect items before making a bid or commitment to buy. All questions regarding items should be asked prior to bidding. Bidders who bid from off-site and are not able to preview understand and acknowledge that their inspection of an item may not be as precise as a first-hand inspection.

Bidder acknowledges that all items are available for inspection prior to the auction and Bidder shall solely rely on personal inspection to determine the item's condition, age, genuineness, value or any other determinative factor. Bidder's failure to inspect, or otherwise be fully informed as to the condition, age, genuineness, value or any other determinative factor of any item will not constitute grounds for any claim, adjustment, refund, termination of the contract for sale or refusal to close the sale.

By bidding, you enter into a legally binding contract to purchase an item when you commit to buy an item, your offer for an item is accepted, or if you have the winning bid. The binding contract is between the Bidder and the Owner/Seller.

Indiana Sales Tax of 7% will be charged and collected on all purchases as required by appropriate state/local laws.

The highest Bidder ("Buyer") is responsible for item pick-up, loading, hauling, and removal of all purchased items. Items will not be removed until paid in full.

All items become the sole responsibility of the Buyer when the auction closes. Although the Auction Company will exhibit reasonable care to safeguard purchases until removed by Buyer, no refunds or adjustments will be allowed for any shortages. Auction Company is NOT responsible for stolen or lost goods.

The record of sale kept by the Auction Company, any audio tape of the auction, and the bookkeeper's records will be taken as final evidence in the event of any dispute.

The auctioneer has the right at his or her absolute and sole discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding in such a manner as he or she may decide, to withdraw any lot, and in the case of error or dispute, and whether during or after the sale, to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding, to cancel the sale or to re-offer and resell the item in dispute.
